Preliminary Exam

- The Prelims exam will feature 200 multiple choice objective type questions.
- Moreover, this exam will carry a total of 200 marks and will last for a duration of 2.5 hours.
- Lastly, the content of the paper will align with the expected knowledge level of a graduate from any recognised university, regardless of their specific field of study.

Main Exam

- The Mains exam will include both objective and conventional type questions.
- Moreover, the Mains Examination comprises six compulsory papers. Additionally, if you are applying for Groups A and/or B, you are required to select one optional subject from the list provided in the WBCS Notification 2024.
- This optional subject is further segmented into two papers, Paper 1 and Paper 2, with each carrying a weightage of 200 marks.

Personality Test

When you successfully clear the Mains exam, you will be called for the Personality Test. Moreover, the objective of this test is to assess your personal attributes, including quick thinking, clear and logical expression of ideas, intellectual and moral integrity, leadership qualities, and the breadth of your interests. Additionally, the assessment will encompass questions related to a wide range of general topics of interest.
