Kolkata Police Constable 2024 Selection Process - Overview

The Kolkata Police Constable 2024 selection process involves several steps that candidates must complete. First, there is a Preliminary Test with 100 marks, which is the initial screening exam to select candidates based on their performance. After that, candidates go through a Physical Measurement Test (PMT) to check their physical attributes. Following the PMT, there is a Physical Efficiency Test (PET) to assess physical fitness. Next is the Final Written Test, where candidates are evaluated based on their knowledge. Finally, there is an Interview where candidates have a face-to-face discussion with the selection panel.
