KP Constable 2024 Latest Updates - Exam Pattern

When preparing for the KP Constable exam, it's essential to understand the exam pattern thoroughly. Familiarizing yourself with the structure of the exam will help you strategize your study plan effectively. Here's a detailed look at the KP Constable exam pattern, incorporating the KP Constable 2024 latest updates to guide you through each stage of the selection process.

Preliminary Test Overview

- The Preliminary Test is the initial stage of the Kolkata Police Constable 2024 Exam.
- It consists of 100 multiple-choice questions (MCQs) covering general awareness, elementary mathematics, and reasoning.
- Candidates have 1 hour to complete the test.
- Each correct answer carries one mark, while incorrect answers incur a penalty of 1/4th of the mark.

Physical Measurement Test (PMT)

- Candidates who qualify for the preliminary test proceed to the physical measurement test (PMT).
- The PMT evaluates candidates based on height, weight, and chest measurements.
- Specific criteria for height, weight, and chest measurements are set for different gender and category candidates.
- Qualifying candidates move forward to the Physical Efficiency Test (PET).

Physical Efficiency Test (PET)

- Candidates who pass the PMT are eligible for the PET.
- The PET assesses candidates' physical endurance through activities such as running.
- Male candidates are required to complete a 1600-meter run within a specified time, while female candidates must complete an 800-meter run.
- Performance in the PET is crucial for progression to the next stage of the selection process.

Final Written Test Overview

- The final written test is the concluding stage of the Kolkata Police Constable 2024 Exam.
- It consists of 85 MCQs covering topics like general awareness, English, mathematics, and reasoning.
- Candidates have 1 hour to complete the test.
- Each correct answer earns one mark, with a penalty of 1/4th of the mark for incorrect answers.
- Marks obtained in the final written test contribute significantly to the final selection process.
