WBP SI 2024 Preparation Tips - Strategies

The following WBP SI 2024 Preparation Tips are important to keep in mind for preparing for the WB Police SI exam 2024:

- Before starting to study for the exam, you must review the whole WB Police SI syllabus and examination pattern.
- Maximize the study time. It is one of the most important areas where you need to make improvements. Set a study timetable and stick to it, including time for revisions. Preparation will be easier if you attempt to create a good timetable.
- Make a list of your advantages and disadvantages, then prioritize the challenges to make sure that you are well prepared.
- Try to practice as many of the previous year's practice questions as possible to improve your chances of successfully clearing the exam. By completing previous question papers, you can improve your time management abilities, and ability to evaluate the exam's difficulty level.
- Revise regularly to overcome obstacles and convert your shortcomings into strengths. Make a list of everything important since it will save last-minute rewriting.
- Make short notes about the content that you are studying.
- It's important to find the ideal balance between speed and accuracy.
- It takes a lot of practice, but it's important to start responding to the questions within the allotted time. You should go over the syllabus to ensure you understand the topics covered.

- This exam will be an OMR-based MCQ type written exam.
- The Preliminary exam consists of 100 questions worth 200 marks in total.
- The exam will last for a duration of 90 minutes.
- Every correct answer is rewarded with 2 marks.
- Every incorrect answer leads to the deduction of 1/4th marks allotted to that question. There is no negative marking for the questions that are left unattempted.

Candidates who qualify the Preliminary Exam will be called for the WBP SI PMT & PST. Moreover, those who qualify at this stage will be eligible for the Final Combined Competitive Exam.

Final Combined Competitive Examination

This WB Police SI exam pattern consists of three different papers. The exam pattern of these papers is as follows:

- Paper I: Paper I includes General Studies and Arithmetic, with a total of 100 marks (50 marks for General Studies, 25 marks for Logical & Analytical Reasoning, and 25 marks for Arithmetic). The duration for Paper I is 2 hours.
- Paper II: The English section of the exam is worth 50 marks and has a duration of 1 hour.
- Paper III: This paper, covering Bengali/Hindi/Urdu/Nepali, carries 50 marks and requires 1 hour for completion.

Personality Test

- Only a limited number of candidates, selected based on their performance in the final combined competitive examination, will be invited for the personality test.
- Your proficiency in reading, writing, and speaking Bengali will be assessed during this test.
- The personality test is worth a total of 30 marks.
- To pass, you must achieve a minimum score of 8 marks in the Personality Test.
