WB Police Constable 2023 Exam Pattern

Examining the WB Police Constable format is similar to having a customized road map. It's crucial since it gives you advice on how to prepare, helps you prepare effectively, and gives you more confidence on test day. So let's simplify and customize the WB Police Constable exam pattern, particularly for you.

In your WB Police Constable Exam journey, you'll encounter four key stages:

1. The Preliminary Exam
2. PMT and PET
3. The Final Written Exam
4. The Interview

Let us now decode each of these stages for you separately in bullet points.

Preliminary Written Test

WB Police Constable Eligibility Criteria 2023 - Age, Education

- The test consists of 100 multiple-choice questions of 1 mark each.
- Be cautious, as there's a deduction of 1/4 of the assigned mark, i.e., 0.25 mark for each wrong answer.
- The test is available in Bengali and Nepali languages.
- You'll have a total of 1 hour, i.e., 60 minutes, to complete the test.

PMT/PET

To qualify for the PMT and be eligible for the PET, you need to meet specific physical standards. You'll be required to run a distance of 1600 meters in less than 6 minutes and 30 seconds. If you successfully meet these standards, you'll move on to the final written exam as one of the shortlisted candidates.

Final Written Exam

Following the PMT or PET, you will need to appear for the final written exam. The final written exam consists of 85 multiple-choice, objective-type questions.

- Each question carries 1 mark, but do be cautious as there's a penalty of 1/4 of the assigned mark, i.e., 0.25 mark for every incorrect answer.
- There's no negative marking for questions you choose not to attempt.

Interview

In the final selection stage, you will undergo a personal interview where they will assess your personality traits and determine your suitability for the job. They will also verify your roll number and other necessary documents during this phase. If you're among the shortlisted candidates and pass the medical test, you'll be appointed as a police constable with the West Bengal Police Department. This interview holds a weight of 15 marks.
