WBCS Recruitment 2024 - Marking Scheme

First and foremost, here's an important tip for aspiring candidates in the WBCS Recruitment 2024: Be cautious while writing your identity details on the answer sheet. If you accidentally reveal your identity by including your name, roll number, or any other identifying marks, you'll face a deduction of 10% from the total marks earned on that paper. So, ensure that your answer sheets remain anonymous to avoid any penalties. Moreover, keep in mind that there's a penalty for incorrect answers in multiple-choice questions (MCQ type). So, it's essential to answer carefully and avoid guessing if you're uncertain about the correct option. These details might seem minor, but they can significantly impact your overall score. Stay vigilant and strive for accuracy throughout the examination process.

WBCS Recruitment 2024 - Exam Dates
